Goals

 WEBSITE GOALS:
- To show to the people that each brand of shoes has different designs
- To let the people recognize other brands

WEBSITE PLANS:
- This website will open a new page or tab for each brand to show it's information
- This website will show pictures of the products to let them know what the product look's like
- This website will also show the product's price so the people can now the price if they want to buy the product

LEARNINGS BASED ON W3SCHOOLS:
- I will use CSS, JAVASCRIPT, and HTML to make the website appealing to the users
Conclusions:
I am very excited to launch this website because I want people to appreciate the beauty of shoes, and also appreciate the other brands that also made beautiful shoes.
